

We have been unable until the present moment, to comply with a request made immediately on the appearance of the first No. of "Amicus" in the Athens Centinel, that we would re-publish these numbers. We hope now to give one every week until we get thro' them. They are well worthy the attention of the reading public.