

In the House of Representatives, after the reports from the Standing Committees, Mr. CLAYTON's resolution directing the appointment of a Select Committee to examine into the affairs of the Bank of the United States, was taken up. Mr. CLAYTON addressed the House in support of his resolution, until the expiration of the hour allotted to morning business. Mr. Root submitted a resolution, relating to the general State...