

From the Washington Globe of March 8.
CONGRESSIONAL ANALYSIS.

In the Senate, yesterday, the resolution submitted by Mr. Sprague, calling on the President for copies of the correspondence between Mr. McLane and the British Government was adopted, after having been so modified by the mover as to apply only to the correspondence respecting the Colonial trade. The Apportionment Bill was taken up, and Mr. Webster, having withdrawn the amendment previously offered by him, moved another, varying practically from the former, by allowing the State of Maine a representative for her fraction, and making the whole number of representatives 256; this amendment, he supported in a speech of considerable length. Mr. Forsyth moved to strike out that part of the amendment, which allows representatives for fractions, and, upon this motion, the debate was continued. Mr. Tazewell, Mr. Sprague, Mr. Webster and Mr. Clayton, taking part therein. Mr. Clayton has the floor for this day.

In the House of Representatives, the discussion of the resolution for the appointment of a Select Committee to examine the affairs of the Bank of the United States, was resumed. Messrs. Root, Crawford, Evans, of Maine, and Beardsley, severally addressed the House. The former gentleman proposed as an amendment that the Select Committee should be chosen by ballot. At four o'clock, Mr. Beardsley gave way to a motion for an adjournment, and is entitled to the floor to-day.
