

Friday, March 23, 1832.

✪ This paper is printed with uncommon rapidity on the patent Napier press—but its extensive circulation requires that advertisements should be received before 11, AM

Messrs. Clayton, Adams, M'Duffie, Johnson, Thomas, Watmough, and Cambreleng, the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Bank of the United States, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, and have taken lodgings at the United States Hotel.