

The Bank Committee made no report on Saturday; and, according to information received by the editor of the United States Gazette, were not expected to present the result of their enquiries before to-morrow or the following day.