

Mr. Cambreleng is now considered in a very "QUESTIONABLE" shape—Judge Clayton, the author of the Report of the majority of the late U. S. Bank Committee, has, in a Card, announced his intention to reply to the counter statement of Mr. Adams. Niles says "he will be Russelled." Mr. Cambreleng, it is said, will not reply in any other manner than by asking nine hundred and ninety-nine questions, every one of which shall be sufficient to puzzle a Philadelphia Lawyer!
