

In Georgia the Union party are said to have succeeded in the election of their whole Congressional ticket. The nullifiers, with Judge Clayton at their head, appear to have been left far in the rear.

South Carolina had her election on Monday—of course we have yet heard nothing as to the results.

---