

The missionaries located within the limits of the Cherokee territory having refused to take the oath to obey the laws of this state, as all white persons are required to do, have been, as we understand, arrested. A request was sent from Colonel Sanford to Judge Clayton to detain the Grand Jury sitting in Lawrenceville until Thursday last, when he was expected to arrive with them. The result we have not heard.—Athenian.