

The Milledgeville, (Georgia,) Journal contains a letter from Chancellor Kent, written in reply to one from Judge Clayton of that state, asking his opinion in relation to the matters involved in Judge Clayton's opinion on the unconstitutionality of the Georgia law respecting the gold mines within the limits of the Cherokee lands. In relation to "the constitutional validity of the statute," Chancellor Kent says—"On this point I am entirely with you, and in my opinion, your argument is sound and conclusive."
