

few plain questions for his honor Ex-Judge

1. Were you not violently opposed to the late and did you not refuse to take up arms in of your country's rights?

2. Are you not a Federalist of the old school?

3. Did you not openly and repeatedly, during his canvassing for Judge in Middlebury, and that William H. Crawford ought in jushis friends to retire from the contest, and over, that he was an overhearing and vicious

4. Were you not repeatedly heard to con-the party which you belong to, for turning of office, and did you not on one occa-say that you were done with party politics, hereafter you would evince to the Clark in Georgia, your friendship both by writ-and speaking in their favor?

5. Did not Judge Schley call on you to know would he be a candidate for Congress, was not your reply to this effect, no sir, I not permit my name to be used by any set that have beaten me as I have been beat-of my party—and declaring to him at the time, that you hoped he would offer, and would use your influence to get him elected?
