

BALTIMORE JACKSON CONVENTION.

MONDAY, May 21.

The Delegates to the Convention for the purpose of nominating a Jackson Candidate for the Vice-Presidency of the United States, assembled this morning in the Saloon of the Athenæum, and having been called to order,

On motion of Mr. Sumner, of New Jersey, John Overton, of Tennessee, was called to the chair.

Mr. J. H. Eaton, of Tennessee rose and stated that Judge Overton was confined to his room by indisposition, and on his motion, General Robert Lucas, of Ohio, was requested to supply his place.

On motion of Mr. Burke, of Ohio, General John A. Dix, of New York, was appointed Secretary, pro. tem.

Mr. Sanders, of Ohio moved that a committee, to consist of one from each State, be appointed to select proper officers to preside over the Convention, and to point out a suitable mode of proceeding, and to report to-morrow at ten o'clock. After some discussion the resolution was laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. Hubbard, of New Hampshire, it was resolved that a committee, to consist of one from each state, be appointed to ascertain and report to the Convention the names of the Delegates in attendance. The committee consisted of the following gentlemen:

Maine, John D. Crate; New Hampshire, Jno. L. Elwynn; Vermont, Stephen Haight; Massachusetts, Ebenr. Sever; Rhode Island, E. R. Potter; Connecticut, Jno. M. Niles; New York, A. C. Flagg; New Jersey, Edw. Condict; Delaware, Geo. Read; Pennsylvania, Simon Cameron; Maryland, Upton S. Heath; Virginia, Philip N. Nicholas; North Carolina, W. P. Williams; South Carolina, D. E. Huger; Georgia, W. Thompson; Alabama, C. C. Clay; Louisiana, H. Carlton; Mississippi, J. C. Williams; Tennessee, John H. Eaton; Kentucky, Saml. Davis; Ohio, J. H. Keith; Indiana, Saml. Millroy; Illinois, J. M. Robinson.

The Committee having retired, the Convention took a recess until one o'clock.

One o'clock, P. M.—On the re-assembling of the Convention at one o'clock, the chair called the members to order, and Mr. Crate, of Maine, reported that the committee appointed for the purpose had procured a list of the names of the members in attendance which was read.

Mr. Crate further reported that during their deliberations, they had been informed that Delegates had been appointed by a public meeting in Alexandria. As the District of Columbia had no representatives in Congress it was for the Convention to decide whether these delegates would be permitted to take their seats.—The committee therefore recommended that they should be admitted to sit in the Convention, under such regulations as might be adopted. The report of the committee was, on motion, unanimously adopted.

The resolution, laid on the table this morning, came up for consideration, and after several ineffectual attempts to amend it, it was adopted, the delegations from the several states being requested to appoint their own members of the committee.

The reading of the report, having been concluded, Mr. Laussaut, of Pennsylvania, inquired whether, in the votes to be taken in the Convention, any ratio had been adopted. He thought such a regulation was necessary on account of the inequality of the representations from the different States. He was informed that that object was embraced in the duties of the committee of one from each state.

On motion of Mr. Mackelfield, it was resolved that the venerable Charles Carroll of Carrolton, the only survivor of that devoted band of patriots who made and signed the Declaration of Independence, be invited to take a seat in this Convention during its deliberations, and three members be appointed to carry into effect this resolution. The chair appointed General Mackelfield, of Kentucky, Governor Fenner, of Rhode Island, and the Hon. Mr. Gierhart, of Pennsylvania.

The Convention then adjourned until Tuesday at 9 o'clock.—American.
