

☞ We are reluctantly obliged to defer till next week, Judge Clayton's ample speech against the Force alias the Bloody Bill. We have also, those of Messrs. Webster and Calhoun. We intend to lay before our readers, both of these leading arguments in the Senate if we can; though it will require a full sheet supplement.