

~~—————~~

Q We must apologize to our readers for giving them part of Clayton's speech in favor of Nullification to-day, instead of continuing Webster's against it. It is from a rather singular mistake of a compositor, which we would explain at length did we deem it necessary. We design to give more from Webster next week.