

We have conversed with the gentleman employed by the General Government, to obtain a cession of territory from the Cherokee Indians, sufficient for the contemplated Canal between the waters of the Tennessee and Coosa Rivers, and regret to learn, that he was entirely unsuccessful. He represents the Indians as decidedly opposed to the measure, and says, they expressed a determination, which they declared was unalterable, not to permit a survey of the route.—Mobile Reg. 30th ult.