

SIGNS.

Mr. Clayton, of the Bank Committee, who exposed the bribery of the editors of the Courier, was made a vice-president of the Baltimore convention.

Mr. Cambreleg, another member of the Bank Committee, was appointed by the other New-York delegates, a delegate to the Baltimore convention.

Mr. Bedient, secretary of the Tammany Society, also abused by the Courier, because he proposed Mr. Cambreleg's health, remains secretary of that body.

Messrs. Vanderpool and Bogert, members of the Tammany Society, also villified by the Courier, have been honored by being appointed on the committee to receive Mr. Van Buren.

Mr. Vanderpool was one of a majority of the 8th ward committee, who refused to consider the Courier as a republican paper, and ordered their advertisements to the Post and Standard.
