

A. S. Clayton.—The Georgia papers speak in terms of severe reprehension of the base and cowardly conduct of this individual in publishing a private correspondence. We have not done with him.