
SAVANNAH,

Tuesday Evening, Dec. 19, 1809.

The legislature of this state, adjourned on Thursday last, after passing sixty-four acts.— One of the members from our county obligingly furnished us with a list of the laws passed; but we could not give it a place this afternoon.

The legislature have appointed THOMAS P. CARNES, esq. judge of the western district, in the room of the hon. Charles Tan; Dr. JOHN GRIMES, a justice of the inferior court for Chatham county, in the room of the hon. William Smith; — Clayton, esq. to prepare a digest of the laws of Georgia, passed since 1800.
