

The following are the Yeas and Nays, on the original bill to alleviate the condition of debtors, as it passed the house of representatives.

YEAS—Messrs. Adams, A. Allen, Atkinson, Bacon, Baker, Bayne, Birdsong, H. Blair, J. Blair, Blunt, Booth, Bronson, Browning, Bush, Childers, Cochran, Colson, Emanuel, Fairchilds, Gray, Groves, J. Henderson, M. Henderson, Hopkins, Lamar, Lane, Lowe, J. Matthews, W. Mathews, M'Lendon, Minturn, Mitchell, Moore, Morrow, O'Neal, Parrimore, Perriman, Piles, Pruett, Robinson, Scarbrough, Tankersley, Terrell, Wade, Waley, Watts, Whitaker, Wellborn, Wimberly, Williams —52.

NAYS—G. Allen, Bird, Branham, Charlton, Clayton, Guthbert, Espey, Glascock, Harris, Hatcher, Hadson, D. G. Jones, T. Jones, Jordan, Lockhart, Luckie, Lumpkin, Maxwell, M'Donald, Pettibone, Rea, Talbot, Varner, Ware, Winn and Whitehead.—26.