

The Georgia Journal of the 16th says, "we shall publish in our next paper the protest of several members of the House of Representatives; against one section of the bill to add the territory in the occupancy of the Cherokees to the counties of Carroll, &c. with the declaration of the majority, in respect to the protest."