

We present to our readers, (which we have been prevented from doing before,) the Report of Judge Clayton on the Tariff and Internal Improvement. Its length must be our apology for the exclusion of Congressional intelligence, and other items of domestic news.