

A legal investigation of a most extraordinary nature, was called up for trial in this place, before Judges Clayton and Crawford, on Monday the 1st inst. The case was brought on a writ of habeas corpus, by Elezekiah R. Foote, calling on Isaac N. Johnson and C. G. Adams, to shew cause why Julian Foote, (formerly Julian Adams) the applicants' wife, should not be delivered into his custody and care. The case originated in De Kalb county, in Judge Colquett's circuit; but the course of Foote received such universal reprobation there, and
