

At the sixth annual convention of the Judges of the Superior courts of Georgia, held at Milledgeville, in November 1830, the following alterations of the Rules adopted by the last Convention, were made and ordered to be published.

Rule 5th. When an appeal is entered, either of the parties litigant may make any amendment of the declaration or answer they