

GEORGIA, JACKSON COUNTY.

Jackson Superior Court, Term, 1830.

Prossor Horton,
Fletcher Horton,
Thomas Price and wife,
vs.

The Executors and Legatees of Prossor Horton, deceased.

In Equity. Bill for Discovery, relief, &c.

IT appearing that some of the defendants in the above case, to wit: James Homphill, James Glenn and Sarah his wife, William Clements, Elijah Nunn and Nancy his wife, Isaac Carr and Pamela his wife, Washington Allen, Jerome T. Flanagan and William M. Flanagan, reside out of the county of Jackson, it is therefore ordered, that said defendants appear in said case at the next term of said Court, and that the publication of this rule once a month for three months in the Athenian, be deemed sufficient service.

Chambers, 26th November, 1830.

A. S. CLAYTON, J. S. C.

A true copy from the original in the above case, this 17th Dec. 1830.

EDWARD ADAMS, Clk.

Dec. 21.—51.—m3m.