

We will take this opportunity to acknowledge the receipt of numerous favors from our Washington City friends—particularly are we indebted to our representatives, Messrs. Clayton, Vinde and Foster, for Congressional documents and papers of great interest and value—for those favors, we return them our sincere thanks.