

The following toasts were given at Watkinsville on the fourth of July ...

17. The orator of the day [Col. A. S. Clayton] – He has on the present occasion, deserved well of Liberty and Literature – the approbation of those who love both be his reward.