

DEATH.—Tuesday morning, about four o'clock, Mrs. Clayton died in this city. She was the widow of the late Judge Clayton. We noticed a large number of carriages in the funeral procession. It was raining at the time of her burial, which prevented many of her friends from attending. We understand that she was universally beloved and respected here.

---