
ANOTHER COLLISION.—South Carolina, and the United States Government, are in a fair way to get at loggerheads, on another subject, besides the Tariff. We will wait with anxiety to see the upshot of the business. South Carolina will now have a fair opportunity of showing whether she can act with the promptness and decision which Georgia displayed in the Tassels case. If South Carolina would talk less—but we forbear to reproach her.