

In the House on the 28th, on motion of Mr. Wofford, the bill to authorize the survey of the lands lately acquired by the United States, for the use of Georgia, of the Creek nation of Indians, by the treaty of 1827, was read the 2d time and referred to a committee of the whole House, and made the order of the day for Monday next.

Mr. Dougherty, from the committee on the state of the Republic, to whom was referred the Governor's message and the accompanying documents relative to our relations with the Cherokee Indians, and also the resolution from the House of Representatives, instructing them to enquire into the expediency of surveying the lands now in the occupancy of said tribe, presented a report on the subjects referred to them; and also reported a bill to add the territory lying within the chartered limits of Georgia, and now in the occupancy of the Cherokee Indians, to the counties of Carroll, DeKalb, Gwinnett, Hall and Habersham, and to extend the laws of this State over the same, and to repeal all laws and ordinances made by the Cherokee Indians, and to provide for the compensation of officers serving legal process in said territory, and to regulate the testimony of Indians—which bill was read the first time.
